Information sheet

Important information for applicants

> Please read these instructions carefully before starting this application.

This application form should be completed if you are applying for an increase, alteration or addition to the following for your existing Elevate Superannuation insurance plan issued by N.M. Superannuation Pty Ltd:

- life
- total and permanent disablement (TPD), or
- income insurance.

Before you sign this application form, be aware that if this application is for an alteration or addition to an existing plan, the current product disclosure statement may not be relevant and there may have been changes to the policy terms for the benefit you are requesting to add or amend. Please refer to your plan document together with any subsequent updates we've provided to you for the terms and conditions of your plan. You can also obtain a consolidated list of updates by contacting your adviser. This information will help you to understand the product and to decide whether it is appropriate to your needs.

> The following are not available when adding an option to a plan:
> - Addition of an option or plan to pre August 2009 policies (inception date of Elevate),
> - PremierLink and FlexiLink options,
> - The addition of a TPD Own Occupation option to an Elevate Super plan, and
> - Addition of a TPD Any Occupation option to an Elevate Super plan commencing prior to 1 July 2014.

In this application form, 'you' refers to the plan owner or the person insured under the plan, as indicated. 'We' refers to the underwriter, Resolution Life Australasia Limited. This applies except where declarations are signed in this application, in which case, 'I/we' refers to the proposed Plan owner or the person insured, as indicated.

We rely on what you tell us

Before we decide to increase or alter your cover or add a new type of cover, we need to know exactly what the risk is that we are to insure and how likely you would be to make a claim.

What you need to tell us

When you apply for insurance

When you apply for insurance, the insurer conducts a process called underwriting. It's how we decide whether we can cover you, and if so on what terms and at what cost.

We will ask questions we need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us in response to our questions is vital to our decision.

The Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation

> Read this if you are applying for insurance as the policy owner, if you will be an insured person under a policy owned by someone else, or if you will be an insured person under a superannuation plan.

Your legal duty

When you apply for insurance and up until your application is accepted by the insurer, there is a legal Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation to the insurer.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

You have the same duty if anything changes, or you remember more information, while we're processing your application.

If you want to change your insurance cover at any time, extend it or reinstate it, you'll also have the same Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation to the insurer at that time.

Issue date: March 2025

Issued by N.M. Superannuation Proprietary Limited (N.M. Super) ABN 31 008 428 322 (trustee), which is part of the AMP group (AMP). The insurer of this plan is Resolution Life Australasia Limited ABN 84 079 300 379 (insurer), which is part of the Resolution Life Group.

You are responsible for all answers given, even if someone assists you with your application.

We may later investigate the answers given in your application, including at the time of a claim.

Where a policy owned by one person covers the life of another person, it's important that the other person does not make a misrepresentation when providing information to the insurer. If the other person does make a misrepresentation, then it may be treated as a failure by the owner of the policy in their Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation. Therefore, you must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation when giving us information whether you're the owner of the policy or an insured person under it.

If you do not meet your legal duty

If you do not meet your Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where we later investigate whether the information given to us was true. For example, we may do this when a claim is made.

If there is a failure to comply with the Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation, there are different remedies that may be available to the insurer. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put the insurer in the position it would have been in if the duty had been met. Therefore, if the person who answers our questions does not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, it can have serious consequences for your insurance, such as those explained below:

- we may treat the contract (or your cover) as if it never existed.
- we may reduce the amount you've been insured for – to reflect the premium you've been paying. There is a link between the premium you pay and your level of cover. If you fail to tell us something, your premiums may have been too low. The insurer may reduce the amount you've been insured for, taking into account the premium you would have had to pay if you'd told us everything you should have. For Death cover the insurer can only reduce the amount you've been insured for within three years of your cover starting.
- we may vary your cover – to take into account the information you didn't tell us and put the insurer in the same position as it would've been if you'd told us. Variations could mean, for example, that waiting periods, exclusions or premiums may be different. The insurer can't make variations to Death cover.

Your total insurance cover forms one insurance contract. If you don't meet your legal duty, the insurer may treat your different types of cover as separate contracts when it takes action to address this.

Whether the insurer can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether the person who answered our questions took reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances. This includes how clear and specific our questions were and how clear the information we provided on the duty was;
- what the insurer would have done if the duty had been met – for example, whether the insurer would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms;
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before we exercise any of these remedies, we will let you know our reasons and the information we rely on and give you an opportunity to provide an explanation.

If we decide to exercise one of these remedies, we will advise you of our decision and the process to have this reviewed or make a complaint if you disagree with our decision.

Guidance for answering our questions

When answering our questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question that we ask you.
- Do not assume that we will contact your doctor for any medical information.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it or check with us.
- Review your application carefully. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and make corrections if needed) before the application is submitted.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, we may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer our questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us know about any changes when they happen.

After your cover starts

If, after the cover starts, you think you may not have met your duty, please contact us immediately.

Genetic test approach

You only need to tell us about any genetic testing you've had or have consented to have if the total combined sum insured with all life insurers for the insurance being applied for is over:

• $500,000 life cover

• $500,000 total and permanent disability cover (TPD)

• $200,000 trauma / critical illness cover, or

• $4,000 a month income protection cover, salary continuance cover or business expenses cover.

You can choose to tell us about a genetic test that you have had where the result was favourable. However, you must tell us if you're experiencing symptoms of, or are having treatment for, a medical condition including any genetically inherited condition. You must also tell us of any family history of a medical condition as asked for in the relevant question in this form.

Note: Resolution Life complies with the Moratorium on Genetic Tests. A copy of the moratorium is available in the Life Insurance Code of Practice cali.org.au/life-code.
